

Summer Talking Tips

Talk about what your child is interested in

The summer holidays can provide some great opportunities for communicating together

Say what you see

Describe what you can hear, feel and taste

Chatting face to face, reading and singing together are all important

For more information, please visit:

www.westberksECAT.info